Applications for 2019 UTO Grant due Friday, March 1

The focus for the 2019 United Thank Offering grants is Go – crossing boundaries created by race, culture, and economics to create communities that listen deeply and learn to live like Jesus. All the necessary information, criteria, focus, forms, and instructions can be found at https://www.episcopalchurch.org/2019-uto-grants

Webinars are scheduled Tuesday, January 15, 2019, at noon and 8:00pm; and Wednesday, February 13, 2019, at noon and 8:00pm. This information will be included with the grant applications. Completed grant requests must be submitted to Edith Therrien (UTO Coordinator) at: scheeredithe@gmail.com by or before February 1, 2019 for review and changes for you to make, if necessary. They will then be forwarded to Bishop Brewer for his review, signature and letter of support and then sent to UTO by or before the first Friday in March.

The Inheritance House is a Center for Healing Prayer in Orlando

The Inheritance House, located at 1220 E. Concord Street, Orlando, FL 32803 is rooted in the belief that Jesus offers the same healing today that He offered over 2,000 years ago when He walked the earth healing people. God wants people set free from addictions, disease, mental illness, and whatever else might ail them. We embrace this healing gift and strive to bring this message of God’s healing to the local community and beyond.

- The Inheritance House provides Christian healing prayer to bring people to health and wholeness.
- The ministry serves as a bridge to bring the healing message of Jesus to the local and online community.
- The Inheritance House is staffed by trained prayer ministers and lay intercessors.
- The ministry is interdenominational. We invite all local churches, ministries, and businesses to send people to be helped and healed. The Inheritance House will work closely with local clergy and lay people to refer people to the ministry and refer people from the ministry to the local churches and ministries.
- The Inheritance House will have many volunteers from various backgrounds and denominations to participate at various levels of service and ministry.
- The ministry seeks the involvement of the Christian community local and worldwide.
- All services offered by the Inheritance House are free of charge. There are no fees attached to the ministry of healing prayer.
