The Book of Isaiah

The Rev. Todd Schmidtetter, Rector Holy Apostles Church, Satellite Beach

The Book of Isaiah is one of the most important books of the Old Testament. While little is known of the personal life of the prophet, he is considered to be one of the greatest of them all. It provides us with the most comprehensive prophetic picture of Jesus Christ in the entire Old Testament. This course will dive deeper into this book which stands as a testament of hope in the Lord, the One who saves His people from themselves.

Class day begins with Morning Prayer at 8:30 a.m. and concludes by 3:30 p.m. Coffee is available throughout the day. There is a 45-minute lunch break.

Cost $35 per day (non-credit) or $45 per day (ICS credit). Classes are held at the Diocesan Office, 1017 E. Robinson Street, Orlando, FL 32801 REGISTER ONLINE or call The Ven. Kristi Alday, Dean at (407) 423-3567 x 303 or (800) 299-3567 x 303 MORE information at: http://icscourses.org

Daughters of the King Women’s Spring Retreat – Saturday, March 16th at Canterbury

Women’s Spring Retreat sponsored by The Order of the Daughters of the King® Diocesan Assembly of Central Florida will be held on Saturday, March 16, 2019 from 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. at Canterbury Retreat and Conference Center, 1601 Alafaya Trail, in Oviedo, FL. The guest speaker for the retreat is Sharon Lundgren, National Past President of The Order. Cost for the event is $30 per person. Registration is now open and limited to the first 90 registrants. A Registration form is included on page 9.

In this issue. Sharon has been a Daughter of the King (DOK) for 40 years. She joined as a young mother and became involved in ministry with DOK from the beginning. Sharon came into leadership first at the chapter level, and then went on to Diocesan President, Province President and National President from 2003-2006. Sharon’s love of history led her to develop the “Margaret Franklin Monologue” which tells the story of how the Daughters began when Margaret was only 31 years old. She will present this drama at the Women’s Spring Retreat. The theme of her presentation is History + Vision = Mission.

As founder of the Texas Glory bound Singers in 1991, Sharon’s love of music gave her a way to inspire others to worship the Lord through Song. The Glory Bound Singers now have led worship at every DOK Triennial since 2000. One of Sharon’s greatest joys in her ministry was to install the first DOK chapter in the Middle East in 2011 at Christ Church Jerusalem!

Rejoice – Reflective Resilience – Replenish

Spring is the season for rejoicing, reflecting and replenishing the many gifts that our Lord has given us. As women Christ has called us to use our unique charisms to minister in all that we do. Like the woman who came to the well in search of replenishment, we invite you to come.

Come...
Rejoice with prayer and song through worship together.
Reflect on the Resilience of Call
Replenish your Spirit for the Call that continues to unfold.

8:30  Sign in & Hospitality: Coffee & Refreshments
9:00  Rejoice with Prayer and Praise
9:45  Reflect on the Resilience of Self & Call
11:00 Replenishment of Self for the Call
11:45 Closing Prayer – Litany for Leave Taking

PARENT INFORMATION
Registrations will not be accepted without parent’s signature

As parent or guardian of the above named young person, I attest that he/she is in good health and that I know of no physical, mental or emotional reason that would prohibit my child from participating in New Beginnings. I understand that every precaution has been taken to assure the good health and safety of each participant and team member and therefore I waive any liability on the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida, staff representing it, or Camp Wingmann staff for personal injury or death while attending camp. I give my permission to have my child medically treated by a licensed physician, nurse or hospital staff during the period inscribed. I also understand that the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida does not provide medical insurance for expenses related to this treatment and therefore this expense is the responsibility of the child being treated. I understand that within the course of the New Beginnings pictures are taken. I agree that New Beginnings may use such photographs of my child with or without their name and for any lawful purpose, including for example such purposes as publicity, illustration, advertising, and Web content.

NEW BEGINNINGS

What is New Beginnings?
New Beginnings is a weekend event/retreat especially designed to respond to the unique challenges and concerns of youth in grades 6-9 (approx. 12-15 years old). It was created by adults and young people in the Diocese of Central Florida, to help participants grow in their love of themselves, others, and our Lord Jesus Christ. During the weekend, participants meet peers from across the diocese, enjoy skits, listen to talks, and participate in small group activities and discussions. These activities focus on self, friends, parents, siblings, school, God’s love, prayer and the church. Free time is built in for youth to have an opportunity to fellowship with their newfound friends. Participants do not have to be Episcopalian but must be recommended by an Episcopal Church and have the backing of an adult (over age 21) from the church that will be attending the weekend as a sponsor. It is expected that all participants, sponsors, and team stay for the entire weekend due to the building nature of the talks and activities.

What is the New Beginnings Team?
The New Beginnings weekend is run by high school students (grades 9-12) and adult team members. Essential to this ministry is the youth leadership that models a Christian community with love and acceptance of every member. Leadership roles include small group leaders, prayer and behind the scene helpers, music team, speakers and spiritual advisors. Each New Beginnings weekend is headed up by high school students, the Junior Weekend Advisor, supervised by the Weekend Advisors, Rev. Phyllis Bartle and Rev. Kevin Bartle along with the help of other adults from across the Diocese.

When do I have to arrive? Friday evening at 7 p.m. (Please eat dinner before you arrive)

When is the weekend over? Approximately 1:30 Sunday afternoon

Where does it take place? Camp Wingmann, Avon Park, FL

How much does it cost: $100 per person covers the rooms, meals and snacks.

What should I bring?

- Comfortable clothes
- Extra pair of shoes (in case it rains)
- Towel
- Lightweight jacket
- Bathing suit (appropriate please)
- Bible
- Toiletries
- Sleeping bag
- Pillow

Do I need any other money? There will be T-shirts available for $10 but no other cash will be needed.

What not to bring: (In order to make this a true retreat, students are encouraged to leave behind the technology that takes them away from group participation. If these items are with the student, we will ask them to put them away until bed time.) Cell phone, I-Pad, other electronics,

Unapproved and/or illegal drugs, alcohol, or weapons are not permitted.

If there are further questions, please contact
